

CHINESE FLAGSHIP SECONDARY CURRICULUM

LEVEL 1, UNIT 4

Interpersonal Speaking

Mr. Wang (王) is a high school principle in China. He was invited to visit Your School. He would like to know the student daily routine in your school. But unfortunately the principle in your school cannot speak Chinese, so he took Mr. Wang to the Chinese classroom to let one of the students in your class explain that to him. Imagine you are the one who was appointed to have the conversation with Mr. Wang, Use the guide below to have your conversation.

Mr. Wang [speak first]

- Say hello and ask the student's name
- Ask the student when he / she goes to school
- Respond to the student's question, ask how many classes he / she has every day
- Respond to the student's questions, and ask what classes they have every day
- Say thank you to the students and say goodbye

Student [Mr. Wang starts first]

- Respond to Mr. Wang, saying "hello" and answer his question
- Respond to Mr. Wang's question, and ask when his students in China start class

- Respond to Mr. Wang's question, and ask how many classes his students have every day, and what kind of activities his students have after school
- Respond to Mr. Wang's questions.
- Say you are welcome and farewell.