- ✓ I can describe my symptoms..

Proficiency Goal

Scenario 1

You missed a web chat with your Chinese-speaking friends from Shanghai because you got sick or hurt. Since you know your friend was really looking forward to talking with you and he/she will be very disappointed, you decide to write a message to tell him/her what happened and why you couldn't keep your date.

You decide to tell your friend:

- What happened to make you sick or how you got hurt
- What were your symptoms or how you got injured
- What you had to do to fix the problem

Feel free to describe any additional details you think should be added so that your friend's feelings aren't hurt.
